Personal Mention

Professor Fayette A. Jones, the mining expert, has gone to Lincoln county to examine a number of mining properties.

J. K. Campbell, chief of grazing of the forest service, has returned to New Mexico after an inspection of the Sitgreaves forest in Arizona.

Miss Grace Caldwell formerly of this city will leave Albuquerque tomorrow to take the position of instructor in the languages at the northern Arizona normal school at Flagstaff.

Professor John S. R. Hammit, chief clerk at the Indian School has returned from Mt. Healthy, a suburb of Cincinnati where he performed the sad mission of burying his wife. Tonight he leaves for Magdalena, Socorro county to receive a party of Navajo Indian children from Puerto Rico.

Tomorrow L. F. Montenie, the local undertaker will accompany his wife and baby to Tulsa, Okla., where Mrs. Montenie will remain over the winter with her parents. Mr. Montenie expects to return to Santa Fe between the tenth and fifteenth of September and resume charge of his business.

Mrs. Charles M. Stauffer and children of Bethlehem, Pa., arrived yesterday afternoon from a visit to Long Beach, San Diego, Santa Barbara, Avalon, Los Angeles and other Pacific coast points and will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. F. Walter, at 405 East Palace avenue, for a few weeks more before returning to their eastern home.

M. R. Otero, register of the local land office arrived in Santa Fe at noon today coming from Albuquerque where he arrived yesterday after spending four weeks' enjoying a vacation at Long Beach, California. He reports himself greatly benefited by the trip but is glad to be back in Santa Fe as he says the climate can not be beat.

MINOR CITY TOPICS

Denver, Colo., Aug. 31.—
Weather forecast for New Mexico: Showers tonight and Wednesday with stationary temperature.

For school books and school supplies go to Stripling-Burrows & Company.

The Harvest Moon—These are glorious moonlight nights, for the harvest moon is in the sky.

LOST—A gold filigree initial breast pin. Initials T. P. G. Return to Fischer's drug store and receive reward.

Eclipse of Mars—Tomorrow evening the planet Mars will be eclipsed by the moon. The eclipse will be visible in all parts of the United States.

Noon Arrivals at the Hotels—Palace—G. B. Brandon, St. Louis; A. H. Wasen, B. B. Sterling, Chicago; J. H. Orle, Detroit. Claire—Miss A. B. Nichols, New York.

Another Forester Weds—W. R. Mattoon, supervisor of the Manzano forest, was married at Las Vegas to Miss Kane Van Lieu. Mr. and Mrs. Mattoon will be at home at Albuquerque.

Showers Again—The weather bureau continues to predict showers. The maximum temperature yesterday was 68 degrees and the minimum last night 54 degrees, the lowest it has been in two months.

Nicholson Will Be Brought Back—James H. Nicholson has been arrested at Tucson, Arizona, and will be brought back to Albuquerque to face the charge of passing a worthless draft on Marcus P. Kelly.

For Sweet Charity's Sake—The Cathedral Guild will on Friday, September 3, give a concert and moving picture show at the Elks' theatre for which tickets are being placed on sale. The affair promises to be a most interesting one.

Asking for Bids to Macadamize San Francisco Street—Mayor Jose D. Sena asks for bids to macadamize or pave San Francisco street from the southwest crossing of the plaza to Don Gaspar avenue. The bids will be opened on next Tuesday evening.

Public Spirited Citizen—"W. E. Lindsey has offered to donate an acre and a half of his land next to the railroad, on the north side, just north of town, as a location for the power plant for the irrigation project, which offer will, probably, be accepted."

For Worthy Cause—The Cathedral Guild will give a concert and moving picture show at the Elks' theatre on next Friday evening, for the purpose of gathering funds to carry city water mains to Rosario cemetery and to beautify the "God's Acre."

Postmaster Loses His Mind—C. L. Phillips, postmaster at Jemez, Sandoval county, who is in jail on the charge of embezzling postal funds, is believed to have lost his mind, as his actions indicate that he is either suffering from acute alcoholism or is insane.

Buried With Masonic Honors—This afternoon at four o'clock, Samuel Caldwell, who died yesterday morning, was buried with Masonic honors by the Montezuma lodge. Mrs. Caldwell arrived in Santa Fe last night and was present at the services. Interment was made at Fairview.

M. A. Ortiz the real estate agent, returned last night from Galisteo where he delivered 2,600 sheep to L. P. Garcia, the agent of the Vega Blanca Sheep Company of Magdalena, N. M., to which company Mr. Ortiz has sold under contract several thousand head of sheep which he must deliver before the 1st of October.

Daily Tribune Tomorrow—Tomorrow the first issue of the Daily Tribune is to appear at Albuquerque. It will be the organ of the Democratic party and starts with a good subscription list, an active and comprehensive canvass for subscriptions having been made all over the Territory.

PEARS AND APPLES FOR SALE.—Parties wishing pears or apples can be supplied in any quantity desired at the Harroun ranch, on Agua Fria road, one mile from the plaza. Several varieties of large pears, also the little Seckle. Large crab and cooking apples. Apply at the ranch, or address C. W. Coombs.

Loses His Brother-in-Law—Yesterday at Rocky Ford, Colo., W. W. Sherrod, a brother-in-law of Thomas B. Stewart, supervisor of the Pecos forest, succumbed to the effects of pneumonia, contracted a week ago while camping on the Pecos river in search of health. The deceased's mother and sister were at his bedside. Mrs. Stewart left for Rocky Ford yesterday.

Drank Concentrated Lye—"The two year old son of Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Keene, who lives near Turner, drank some concentrated lye Tuesday evening. Luckily an automobile passed soon after on its way to town and the child and mother were brought to town, where the child could be treated. The child was taken back home Wednesday and at last reports it was improving."

was astonished at the manifest growth of the town. About a dozen buildings are under construction, including a bank building and a club house for the Athletic Association. The farms under the Maxwell system look well. Mr. Miller also went over the Charlette Lake Carey Act proposition and says the land under it is some of the finest in New Mexico and is located beautifully for irrigation from the Ocate and tributaries. A small force of men is working on the Aztec mine near Ute Pass, so Mr. Miller reports.

The Supreme Court Adjourns.

The supreme court did not convene until half past three o'clock this afternoon at which time a number of important opinions were handed down after which final adjournment was taken.

MILLINERY STORE OPENS NEXT WEEK.

Two of Santa Fe's Enterprising Women Will be in Charge of New Venture.

Everything in now being rapidly placed in readiness for the opening of Santa Fe's new millinery store, which will make it initial bow to the public some time next week. Mrs. R. L. Baca and Mrs. M. R. Byrd, two energetic and enterprising women, well known to all Santa Feans, are the proprietors and managers of the new business. They have secured a splendid location on the east side of the Plaza and are now engaged in receiving and placing in order a large amount of recently purchased stock.

Mrs. R. L. Baca has just returned from a trip to the east, taking in New York, Baltimore, Philadelphia and Chicago, in all of which cities she made purchases of millinery and other articles, securing the very latest and best designs and styles.

While the new store will primarily be a millinery emporium it is also planned to handle a line of fancy work, notions and a full line of men's modern up-to-date shirts, neckties and hosiery.

For This District As A Basis of Credit

By this system each individual is placed on record showing how many places they secure credit and with what degree of promptness they pay their bills. The book will show, not the financial standing but the credit standing of everybody, man or woman, who trades on time, and as it is not a financial rating the poor man who pays his bills promptly will receive a higher rating than the man of means who does not.
